KEEP CASE A SECRET

Filing of Bill in Carlyle H. Smith Suit Postponed.

December Term of Alexandria Counof His Pastorate at St. Mary's.

> WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 113.) Corner of Prince and Royal Streets.

Alexandria, Va., Dec. 16.—The December frightened and seems to prefer the darkest corner of his cell. Court, Judge Charles E. Nicol, presiding, His capture is not generally known term contains several criminal and civil difficult to forecast. cases, but it is not expected that this session will be marked by proceedings of more than ordinary interest. The filing Battle Ship Indiana Also Sails from of the bill in the equity suit of Mrs. Carlyle Herbert Smith against her husband Courtland H. Smith, has been postponed, and will, it is said, probably take place on the first rule day in January. As before stated the object of this action. which is not indicated by the memorandum filed December 6, will not be disto the court. The suit, however, is said to be connected with certain differences alleged to have existed between Mr. Smith serted that the case will be heard in chambers. Mr. Smith, who is the proprietor of the Hampton Stock Farm, near this city, is one of the best known horse-

Resumes Charge of Church,

Rev. H. J. Cutler, pastor of St. Mary's through Europe for several months past, trouble with Japan. in an effort to recover his health, returned home late last night. Father Cutler celebrated the mass at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and during the course of his re- C. A. Malone Disappears from Edinmarks thanked the congregation most cordially for the many improvements that Special to The Washington Herald. have been made to the parsonage since his departure. He also stated that he had entirely recovered his health. At the con-

To Start a Seminary.

property of George N. Saegmuller, in counts, are said to be left behind. Washingtotn district, Alexandria County, intend to establish a seminary for young ladies there is verified by Mr. Saegmuller. The estate was acquired by the trustees of the Christian Church of Kentucky. It is said to be the intention of the church to establish an institution for the higher education of young women from the various schools throughout the country which are controlled by that body. Special to The Washington Herald, Extensive additions are to be made to Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 16.—The Old Dc-death occurred Thursday, took place this June 18, 1864, by the Union forces under afternoon from the residence of her hus- Gen. Hunter. afternoon from the residence of her husband. Thomas Posey, 608 South Patrick street. Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, of the First Bandst Church, officiated, and the propose to erect a building on the site in had been found, and explained the coninterment was in Bethel Cemetery.

The funeral of Emmett E. Jones, who and occupied as soon as possible. died at the Alexandria Hospital Thursday, was held this afternoon from the residence of his sister, on South Patrick street. Rev. Charles D. Bulla conducted the services, and interment took place in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

THINK NEGRO TOOK POISON.

Authorities Arrest Physician, Who Give Victim Unlabeled Bottle.

Special to The Washington Herald. Newport News, Va., Dec. 16 .- Dr. G. A. Skelton, who has been treating negro cases in Bloodfield for some time, is detained in Warwick County jail, charged with administering poison to Tom White, who went to him for treatment. negro received two unlabeled pint flasks, the contents of which he was directe to take. The first mixture occasioned burns and pains that necessitated the attention of other physicians. White was revived, and Skelton's arrest followed.

DR. EDWARD C. CHERRY DEAD. Aged Physician Had Made All Preparations for His Burial.

Special to The Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Dec. 16.-Dr. Edward C. Cherry, a retired practitioner, died at his home at Marlboro, this county, last night, aged eighty-three years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edmonia V. Cherry. Two years ago Dr. Cherry had a vault prepared for his last resting place and selected his pallbearers, the minister to conduct his funeral services, and other details, including the hymns to be sung at his funeral.

Catholic Church Is Dedicated. Special to The Washington Herald.

Keyser, W. Va., Dec. 16.-The Catholic Church of the Assumption, W. A. O'Hara, pastor, was to-day dedicated, with imposing ceremonies, in charge of Right Rev. A. A. Van De Vyver, Bishop of Richmond, assisted by a number of visiting clergy. The dedication services took place this morning at high mass, and the dedication sermon was delivered by Very Rev. Walter Elliott, of Washington, D. C.

Football Players Entertained.

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 16.-Miss Grace Howard, daughter of Capt. Thomas B. Howard, U. S. N., secretary of the Navy Athletic Association, yesterday entertained at afternoon tea in honor of the members of the Navy football team, which recently defeated the West Pointers. She was assisted by a number of the younger Tacoma Is Ordered to Havana.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 16.-The cruiser Tacoma, now in Hampton Roads, has received wireless orders from Washington to proceed at once to Havana. The cruiser left here ten days ago for the Washington Navy Yard, presumably for repairs. Sailing orders were received shortly after arrival here.

Mining Property is Sold.

Special to The Washington Herald. Cumberland, Md., Dec. 16.-The property of the Georges Creek Bald Knob Coal Mazie had her Thanksgiving turkey Company, located in Allegany County, after all. Md., and Somerset County, Pa., was sold yesterday for $33,200, for that part in Allegany County, Md. The purchaser was From the Philadelphia Press. the Brailer Mining Company.

Launching Party Starts Home.

pecial to The Washington Herald. Newport News, Va., Dec. 16,-The Mon tana launching and Tennessee silver Washington and the latter for Nashville, arm the other day.

THINK THEY HAVE ASSAILANT.

Annapolis Authorities Hold Negro for Mrs. Reid's Identification,

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 16.-William Davis, allas Henry Davis, colored, who fits the description given by the victim, was arrested in Annapolis this afternoon on suspicion of being the assailant of Mrs. John Reid, who was attacked as she WILL NOT REVEAL DETAILS drove down the country road about three niles from Annapolls Friday afternoor The man was arrested by County Constable James Small and lodged in the city lockup pending identification by Mrs. ty Circuit Court Opens To-day, but Reid. The authorities who drove out to Family Dispute Will Not Be Aired. Mrs. Reid's this afternoon were met with Rev. H. J. Cutler Resumes Charge a refusal by her physician to allow her to take the trip at this time, as her condinanolis to-morrow or the man will be taken out to her for identification, The accused negro claims to have been working at the Naval Academy, and says he has not been near the scene of the crime in months. He is thoroughly will be opened to-morrow morning at 10 and there is no excitement. What drift o'clock, in the county courthouse, on public opinion may take should Davis be Fort Myer Heights. The docket for the positively identified by Mrs. Reid, it is

WILL TEST COALING DEVICE.

Norfolk Under Sealed Orders.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 16 .- Recently equipped with an English device for coaling at sea, the battle ship Indiana is scheduled to leave Hampton Roads to-morrow to test the efficiency of the apparatus. The colclosed until the declaration is presented lier Abarenda, equipped with the same device, will be used in connection with the

> This will be the first test of this, and t will be made under varying conditi

It was reported here to-night that the Indiana would sail under sealed orders. and that the ship has an unusually large amount of ammunition aboard, but naval officers say that they know nothing realso suggested that the vessel is going o'clock. Catholic Church, who has been on a trip around to the Pacific in anticipation of burg with Foreman and Money.

CONTRACTOR IS MISSING.

Winchester, Va., Dec. 16,-C. A. Malone clusion of the services many of the system at Edinburg, drew $100 on the parishioners repaired to the rectory and work already done, and, with his fore-the main building, while the large stone minion Chapter, United Daughters of the barn is to be converted into a commodious Confederacy, of this city, has acquired by barn is to be converted into a commodious structure for school purposes. The new purchase the site of the fort which was purchase the site of the fort which was owners will take possession in the spring. purchase the site of Lynchburg against be danger to me used in the battle of Lynchburg against be danger to me The funeral of Mrs. Hattle Posey, whose the attempted capture of the city on

MUSEUM OF LYNCHBURG FORT. Daughters of Confederacy Acquire Site of Civil War Battle.

CAR LINE CEASES OPERATION.

City of Hampton Roads Fails to Furnish Bond as Required by Court.

Special to The Washington Herald. Newport News Va. Dec. 16.-The Hampton Roads Traction Company suspended the sum of $20,000 as required by the stchetched across the window. But I court in the injunction obtained by the know of the Red Window at the Hall, continuing its service. The bond should Sir Simon was making a signal to Berhave been furnished at noon vesterday The city is expected to make the next move to-morrow, unless the city attorney decides to make no further attempt to

A SECOND THANKSGIVING.

Novel Proclamation from Secretary Shaw When Governor of Iowa.

rom the New York Press.

this time, is told of Secretary of the the same thing, hoping that Bernard Treasury Shaw. The story dates back | might see the light and enter. If Bernard to the time when Mr. Shaw was governor of Iowa, and in common with all State executives, issued Thanksgiving to bring Bernard? proclamations each year. One year after he had appointed, by authority of his position as governor, the day for eating turkey and plum pudding, he received the following letter from one of his young subjects: "Dear Governor:-Please can we have another Thanksgiving Day, and have it next week? I was sick and could not Simon?" have it on the day you said. I could not eat any turkey or other good and said that some one wanted to see Sir things because the doctor said I Simon. He heard her whisper to him, and Little Mazie had asked her mother who made the day which brings with it so many things good to eat, and when told, she wrote this letter without confiding her plan to any one.

In a day or so the mailman brought to Mazie's house an official-looking message. The kind-hearted governor had complied with her request and had sent the following proclamation:

"Having been informed that Mazle -, of L-, was ill on the 28th day of November, and was thereby prevented from joining in the festivities incident to Thanksgiving Day, I therefore recommend that at a venient hour on Monday, December 9, 1901, Mr. and Mrs. Z-, together with their family and such young friends as members of the Academy and Annapolis Mazie may choose to invite, assemble in the family dining-room and there, with thankful hearts for country, home, and the blessed influences of children, partake of such bounties as are usually served in Christian America on the day appointed for national thanksgiving, and that special attention shall be given that Mazie be bountifully supplied with that portion of the national bird and other delica> day of December, 1901." The appointed day was one of great rejoicing in the Z- household, and cies as shall be most congenial to her,

Not So Ardent.

Miss Ascum-You're still engaged to Jack, I suppose?

Miss Cudales-Certainly. Miss Ascum-And does he love you as much as ever?

Miss Cuddles-Gracious! No.

THE RED WINDOW

By FERGUS HUME.

Copyright, 1904, by G. W. Dillingham Company,

CHAPTER XVIII-Continued.

Guiseppe, twisting his hat in his hands, looked keenly at Durham with his dark eyes. "Signor, be explicit," he said.

"I'll explain myself thoroughly," said nor. Bernard," he continued, when the said, 'Follow him!' tion is still serious. She may come to An- Italian obeyed his request, "inherits his grandfather's property, and, of course, as soon as possible.

"Ah! That is good of him," said Tolomeo, gratefully.
"But," went on Durham, with emphasis, Bernard cannot give you this income until he is formally put in possession of the estate; and he cannot take possession of the estate until he is cleared from this of murder. Now, you can help "Signor," said the Italian at once, "I thought Bernard was dead; that, as the own I shall return.' "After helping Bernard?" warned Dur- chief. See!" Tolomeo produced it. "It he wants to make his will in my favor." "Of course. I will not leave the coun to face his fellow-men in safety," said the lawyer, quickly. "Now, signor, you admit that you were at the house in rimea square on that night. "Yes; why not? I went to see Sir Simon. I walked to the hall in Essex to see him. He had gone to town; I found out where, and I came back to see him. garding the orders for the ship. It was On that night I went some time before 10

> "I know that," said Durham, "Mrs. reled with him."

'It is true; we had words."

contractor for putting in the waterworks run away, but immediately afterward sat found the assassin would be identified. down. "I don't suppose you have called me here to make an arrest, signor," he Here was the handkerchief, so fortunatecongratulated Father Cutler on his safe man, Jack J. Mountain, took French thought there might be trouble should it lose nothing. H. A. Kneisley will finish parted, and he promised to help me the

There is danger if what Mrs. Gllroy

Listen! I called to see Sir Simon before 0 on that night. I sent up my name The woman you speak of brought back a message that her master would see me." "One moment," put in Durham. "Did ham, quickly.

"Yes. There was a lamp near the winoperation of its cars to-day upon failure dow, although the room was lighted with of the city yesterday to furnish bond in electric lamps. A red handkerchief was court in the injunction obtained by the said the Italian, with a shrug. "My siscity restraining the company from dister used to signal to me. I guessed that "Are you sure of that?"

"He told me so himself," said Tolomeo, quietly; "and it was because he thought I force the company to continue operation. might know where Bernard was that he don. saw me. He said he would forgive Bernard and help me. We had some words, as he called me-a Tolomeo-names which ould not hear quietly. But afterward h said he would help me, and then he wanted to see Bernard. Miss Randolph told him of the use she had made of the Red A story, which bears repeating at Window, so in this London house he did had," said the Italian, with great earnestness, "all would have been well."

"Do you know if Sir Simon sent a boy "No. I do not know. Sir Simon said nothing of that. He only put the lamp behind the handkerchief in the hope that Bernard might come to the house. For all he knew Bernard might have learned where he was staying. I think the old man was sorry he quarreled with my poor nephew," said Tolomeo, with earnestness.

"Well, after arranging this you left Sir "Not immediately. Mrs. Gilroy came in mustn't. I ain't very big, but I like said I could go away, telling Mrs. Gilroy turkey. Please let us have it. Your to send up the stranger. She went away, friend.

MAZIE Z—_" I followed, and opened the front door my-

"Yes. But when I was going out I heard Sir Simon call over the stairs. He asked me to return. I closed the door and did so,"

"Ah!" seid Durham, making a note. "Mrs. Gilroy thought you had left the house. She said so in her diary. Then she came upstairs?"

"No," said Tolomeo, "she did not. I went back to the room. Sir Simon said he wanted me to be present, as he had a sagreeable interview. He made me hide behind a curtain. I did so. Then the door opened and Bernard entered." "What!" Durham started from his seat

That's impossible." "Of course it is," rejoined the Italian, smiling; "but I assure you, signor, the man who entered I took to be Bernard. "Michael, the son of Mrs. Gilroy, I

"Ah! And how?" asked Tolomeo, surprised and rather vexed. "I hoped to astonish you by this." "Well, it's a long story. I'll tell it after you tell me yours. Michael entered dressed as a soldier."

"L. M. SHAW, Governor.
"Signed at Des Moines, Iowa, this 6th knew that this was Mrs. Gilroy's son, and knew that this was Mrs. Gilroy's son, and knowledge. "I thought he was my nephew until I heard his conversation. Then I that she had been deceived by Walter Gore in a false marrage. Sir Simon told real Bernard was alive, and, therefore, > and I thought Sir Simon gave him the to see him. check. It was honored." eck. It was nonored.

> "Yes. Sir Simon said he knew it was Julius, sharply. How a forgery, for the bank sent the check Durham shrugged his shoulders. "By as to spare this Michael. But he said call in the police, you are not a friend to game.

also that if Machael did not leave the untry he would prosecute him. Michael retorted, and there was a quarrel.

"Why did Michael run away?" "I do not know. But he did. I went the title. He wants to help you, and into the fog and followed him to the High proposes to give you five hundred a year street. Then I lost him. As I turned out

"Julius Beryl." "Impossible! He was at the theater." teeth, "a little five hundred a year will Michael returned. He escaped. I was by make me a great lord in Siena, to which the railings on the opposite side of the street. As he ran he dropped a handkers marked 'J. B.' " Durham snatched the handkerchief. A try till Bernard is seated in his proper faint smell of chloroform lingered about place, and married—I understand he is to "I believe so. But he must first be able "Yes," said Tolomeo; "that man killed was the guilty person. Durham was not so surprised as he might have been. He had always suspected that Julius was Gilroy admitted you. She says she took you up to Sir Simon, and that you quarsonally guilty. But the story of Guiseppe, and the production of the handkerchief "And then you left the house without marked with Beryl's name seemed to put the ing her. Behind you, according to Mrs. Gilroy, you left the dead body of Sir the matter beyond doubt. Durham remembered how Conniston had always Tolomeo started up as though about to said that when the lost handkerchief was

"Oh! And the next day you heard of thought the lawyer when Tolomeo had that from some knowledge of the forged arranged a shooting excursion to Dachis death?"

"The whole thing was a plant. check Beryl had obtained this extraordigam for his distinguished visitors, who "No, I heard of his death on that night. I expect he arranged to go to the Curtain Theater so as to have an alibi. But tell you later, signor, listen to my tale—it is strange, but true. Set down what I say, for this I am prepared to swear to in a court of law. I should have seen you a court of law. I should have seen you are not should be easy for Beryl to slip round a court of law. I should have seen you are not specification. The whole thing was a plant. I expect he arranged to go to the Curtain Theater so as to have an alibi. But tain Theater so as to have an alibi. But tain Theater so as to have an alibi. But tain Theater is near Crimea Square and it would be easy for Beryl to slip round between the acts. Humph! Evidently he account of law. I should have seen you did kill the old man—this handkerchief is "Confront her with me. What does she are celved him coldly and was on his guard. It was difficult to the Bower for Gore to sign?"

The lawyer received him coldly ever. The lawyer received him coldly and was on his guard. It was difficult to the Bower for Gore to sign?"

The lawyer received him coldly ever. The lawyer received him coldly ever. The lawyer received him coldly went on making objections. All these went on making objections. All these went on making objections. All these ported. The sale of the one anna (2 cents) locality. His vigilance and activity in running down evil doers had made his now why Beryl should pay a visit to the Bower for Gore to sign?"

The lawyer received him coldly ever the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire preserving peace and good order in that enormous increase in business is reported. The sale of the one anna (2 cents) locality. His vigilance and activity in running down evil doers had made his as to the Bower for Gore to sign?"

The lawyer received him coldly went on making a finished job of any ever. The lawyer received him coldly ever the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with, Mr. Burnam, and striking developments. An entire in the with a which they will establish a Confederate tents so far as they bore on the accusamuseum. The building will be erected tion of Tolomeo. He listened attentively, plained the reason for his call.

name almost a household word throughname almost a household word throughname almost a household word throughout the entire State, and caused the law-

You are Bernard's." "I was Bernard's, you mean." 'Does that intimate that you have quar- tate you will find me a good client."

that," said Beryl, smiling.
"That has nothing to do with you."

disappeared. Then I was not quite sure things should come to that pass."

However, Durham, true to his ap the Bower, starving and in rags." and act accordingly. Durham did not like close relationship with a proven murder-having anything to do with such a scoundrel, but in the interests of Gore he truth out of sheer disgust. But the lethad to smother all feelings save strictly ter prepared the minds of both ladies for merous and serious complaints of the system, an official explanation has been offered. The numerous and serious complaints of the turned him over to Eberhart, clad only in one garment that reached nearly to his uiringly at Beryl. statement. Jerry may be making a mis- his eyes.

take.' of his letter, and insisted on seeing my cousin. Miss Plantagenet—as I knew she would-denied that he was there; but afterward, when I threatened to bring the police onto the scene, she gave way, and let me see Bernard."

'You are sure, then, that Bernard committed the crime?" known for some time, that Bernard was t the Bower?" tion," said the lawyer, stiffly, ne you had been to see him, and that 116. spite of the change in his looks you knew who he was."

paper. He wondered if Julius really be-lieved the man at the Bower to be Ber-"Yes," said Tolomeo, more and more lieved the man at the Bower to be Ber-incide surprised by the extent of the lawyer's what he, Durham, thought himself.

After some reflection, the lawyer resolved Haggin Foremost Breeder of Horses. to accept Michael as the man in question. Julius could not possibly know that the Michael that he was tired of assisting it would be as wise to keep the knowlhim, and accused him of making love to the housemaid. The boy—he is but a boy, signor—acknowledged this. Then Sir Simove, "Yes," he said, at length, throwing that Michael had forged his down his pen, and taking up a position made nearly 300 nominations to the 430,— 000 Hopeful Stakes, to be run at Saratoga in 1909. These entries represent the noted stallions Watercress, Star Ruby, Gold case take two years more. Meanwhile, many industrial establishments in Piedmany industrial establishments in the complete reorganization and equipment of the railways of Italy must in any

stallions Watercress, Star Ruby, Gold
Finch, Kinley Mack, Maxio, Bute, many industrial establishments in Piedmany industrial establishments in on the hearth rug. "I was informed by Durham started up again. "What! Miss Plantagenet that Bernard had Montana, Juvenat, and Ben Strome. Ah!" he said. "So that was a forgery; sought refuge with her, and I went down

"Why did you not tell me?" asked From the Detroit Free Press. service parties left to-day, the former for could he? You know he broke his right to him. But he said nothing so many times that it taught me the of railway facilities, and remained at the ful pause: "I wisht our milkman kept

Bernard," he said. "Why should I have summoned you? To assist you to arrest

"I do not wish him to be arrested," said Julius, mildly, "On the contrary, I wish the poor fellow to die in peace.'

"To die-what do you mean?" "What I say, Mr. Durham. Payne tells me that Bernard has been so exhausted by his wandering when in hiding that he cannot recover. His death is only a question of days. Mind you"-Julius wagged his finger again-"I really believe I he killed Sir Simon, but as he is dying, most satisfactory, and hopes of his rethought he would have struck the old why, I shall do nothing. I am not a vin-covery are entertained, man, so I came out. When Michael saw dictive man. Besides," added Julius, lookme he grew pale and, opening the door, ing sideways at the lawyer, "Bernard and -The new palatial war office in London Durham. "You can sit down again, sig-fellowed to bring him back, as Sir Simon with Miss Melleson." with Miss Malleson."

"Indeed! And how did you bring that the finest government building in the about?"

"By acting straightforward and honor- rooms. It is situated in Whitehall, with into the fog and followed him to the High street. Then I lost him. As I turned out of the square I brushed past a man. It was under a lamp-post and I saw his face. He was in evening dress and was walking quickly. He entered the house by the door I had left open."

"By acting straightforward and honorably, as I always do," said the meek Julius. "Miss Malleson acknowledged to me that Bernard was sadly changed by the hardships he had undergone. All the same, she recognized him. Unfortunately, the poor fellow is too feebie to tell her of the perils he underwent, so she has not had an opportunity of talking much to him."

"By acting straightforward and honorably, as I always do," said the meek Julius. "Miss Malleson acknowledged to me that Bernard was sadly changed by the hardships he had undergone. All the same, she recognized him. Unfortunately, the poor fellow is too feebie to tell her of the earl, Oliver Henry Wallop, and the second had an opportunity of talking much to him."

It struck Durham from this speech that imposition: He was at the theater. The was the theater. The theater the was at the theater. The was the theater. The was the theater. The was the theater the was at the theater. The was the theater. The was the theater theater. The was the theater the was the theater the was the theater. The was the theater the wa walked about for long. Then I came back ing the river. But now that I know he is alive, you can command my services without money. All the same," added without money. All the same," added to be to be to related by the walked about for long. Then I came back before eleven. I found the door open, I saw Bernard in the hail, and heard that Julius was driving at, and how much he was accused. I thought he was accused. I thought he was accused. I thought he was accused by the walker with the next words.

> Feeling that he is not long for this world, Durham nearly uttered an exclamation, or all of a sudden the whole rascally work already done, and, with his foreman, Jack J. Mountain, took French leave. Word has been received from Malone, who was then in Altoona, Pa., that lone, who was then in Altoona, Pa., that lone, who was then in Altoona, Pa., that has would not return. Unpaid labor be worked already done, and, with his foreman, Jack J. Mountain, took French leave. Word has been received from Malone, who was then in Altoona, Pa., that has would not return. Unpaid labor be worked as a series, signor," he said. "I am innocent, but I admit that I there was the handkerchief, so fortunate—ly picked up by Tolomeo, and it be longed to Julius. Also Julius, according to the litalian, had entered the house in Cumine Strahan, formerly governor of the extra allowance of four hundred to Mrs. Crimea Square about the time the mur-Gilroy, making her income five hundred in dren to write of mother, and never left her even after she, the will. These included an income of five hundred a year to Alice Malleson, and the best qualified of all Queen Victoria's children to write of her late majesty's private secretary to the late Sir G. Cumine Strahan, formerly governor of the will. The same style as Bernard Gore usually wrote, setting forth directions for the will. These included an income of five hundred a year to Alice Malleson, and the extra allowance of four hundred to Mrs. Cumine Strahan, formerly governor of the extra allowance of four hundred to write of her late majesty's private secretary to Sir drent of the will. The same style as Bernard Gore usually wrote, setting forth directions for the will. These included an income of the late Sir G. Cumine Strahan, formerly governor of the will the will. These included an income of the will the will. These included an income of the late Sir G. Cumine Strahan, formerly governor of the will the will the will the same style as Bernard Gore usually wrote, setting forth directions for the will the will the will the will the same style as Bernard Gore usually wrote, setting forth directions for the will the The report that the purchasers of the claims of $800, in addition to other according to the property of George N. Saegmuller, in counts, are said to be left behind.

Washingtoth district, Alexandría County, intend to establish a seminary for young there was supposed to have been compared to the claims of $800, in addition to other according to the claims of $800, in add sonal, went to Julius Beryl. Durham "And there's no doubt that Beryl sent Jerry for Bernard, so that he might be brought to the spot for accusation."

Sonal, went to Junus Beryl. Durham smided inwardly as he read this document. It was exactly the kind of will Julius wanted. Michael was simply his instrument, and Durham shrewdly suspected regal visit to Kashmir, the Maharajah blained the reason for his call.

"I have something extremely private the will as instructed by the letter, and figure was over 40,000,000. The Indian post-"Oh, what a wicked woman!" he said. "I have something extremely private the will as instructed by the letter, and rigure was over 40,000,000. The Indian post-office undertakes functions performed by "Eberhart had been on the lookout for office undertakes functions performed by a certain character for some time, and stating that I had seen Bernard in Lonevents, even if Miss Malleson could prove that Michael is not her lover, the new "So I understand," said Durham, calm"So I understand," said Durham, calmwill might lead to litigation. However, as only the army of the army lead to litigation. However, as only the army lead to litigation. However, as only the army lead to litigation. The "So I understand," said Durham, calmwill might lead to litigation. However, as will might lead to litigation. However, as will might lead to litigation. However, as been are understand, and well, we can produce promoters declare that while not seeking to the cabin where the bad man was enough to hang himself. In other words, to listen quietly to what he had to say. nd act accordingly. Durham did not like close relationship with a proven murder-

You don't seem surprised," said Julius, cent and childlike than ever. "Please,

TO BE CONTINUED TO-MORROW.

JOCKEYS GOING ABROAD. Redfern and Hildebrand Cannot Make Local Scale Here.

Durham drew figures on his blotting-

James B. Haggin, America's foremost to Finch, Kinley Mack, Maxio, Bute, Water Boy, Royal Flush, McChesney, Started in for Himself.

The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Posen, Monsignor Stabelevski, died last month. He was an avowed Polish patriot, and took a prominent part in the Polish national movement.

In an article in a Bukharest paper the Queen of Roumania, using the pseudonym of "Carmen Sylva," states that, al though King Charles in the last six months has not had a single night without pain, his majesty's condition is now ever to the authorities. It is considered world, and contains over a thousand In her colony in Southwest Africa Ger-

Julius was doubtful of the identity of many has had continuous trouble for sev-"And being friends with Bernard," went on Beryl, "he is sorry that we quarreled." man government will probably hear some taken. Wallop himself is one of the very drastic comments on its colonial most prosperous of most policy, when this enormous sum is asked for in the Reichstag.

usiness became clear. Julius knew that peared on the streets of London and his hair-a brilliant red in color-very the man at the Bower was Michael, and Paris. An edict of fashion has brought long, has written a volume or two of ne was prepared to extract from him a it about, but it is none the less wonderhe was prepared to extract from him a forged will, in the hope that the real Bernard was dead. Having made use of Michael to bring about the accusation of Gore, he now used him to the very last to get the money. However, Durham kept his temper under, and pretended to believe that Julius was speaking in all good faith. He simply bowed his head. On hearing from Tolomeo that Berni Every word that Lulius ead was ofbelieve that Julius was speaking it at good faith. He simply bowed his head good faith. He simply bowed his head sleeve fashion for dresses even in winter. Every word that Julius said was weaving the sleeves really should be passee, as further these sleeves really should be passee, as "Are you surprised, then, at my call-ing?" said Julius, anxiously.

seat, "If Gore wishes to make a will, I tenberg, mother of the Queen of Spain, a distinction," a saying which was in suppose I am the man to draw it up. I has been writing for some time upon the striking contrast, to that of Lord Melnust go down and receive his instruc- Isle of Wight, is ready and will be pub- bourne, who said that he liked the Order lished in the spring. It deals very ex- of the Garter, because there was "no "I have them with me," said Julius, listed in the spring. It deals very deal ded merit or any nonsense of that sort Durham, inwardly boiling at this ras- of which the princess is the governor. about it." lity, but outwardly calm, opened the Of special interest, of course, are the ref- It was another brother of Lord Portsetter, while Julius kept a sharp lookout erences to Osborne House and the life of mouth, John Wallop, who in 1892 was one the him. He found a long letter, written the late Queen Victoria. Princess Henry of the first scions of the aristocracy to the same style as Bernard Gore usu-was the constant companion of her

Lady Minto, the wife of the viceroy of India, has been distinguishing herself as before and spoken had I known that Berproof enough, to say nothing of Tolomeo's hard was alive, but thinking he was dead
I did not talk, as I fancied there might

The constler of take I should have seen you and knill the old man—this handkerchief is Junius, tartiy.

"Then, Mrs. Gilroy." said Durham. pretending ignorance. "Why should Bernard did not have cause to use his rifle, the tending ignorance. "Why should Bernard leave her this extra money?"

I recall a short visit he once made to ness, until the lawyer-on the face of it- and half anna stamps has more than running down evil doers had

"I was not quick enough. He walked him at the eleventh hour and frighten at the other side of the street, and bear a fraid that young man will be hanged after all, though I am unwill-be hanged after all the though I am unwill-be hanged after all the though I am unwill-be hanged after a ilt on account of the traffic, Bernard ing, for the sake of the family, that tent among those who are satisfied with take. During the parley Bill's things should come to that pass."

However, Durham, true to his appointment arrived at the station the next day. However, Durham, true to his appoint to make those who are the station the next day the community realize the essentials of hart he did not think it worth while to "Indeed?" said Durnam, with a quaim, ment, arrived at the station the next day the community realize the essentials of narr ne did not think it worth with a property of the fancied Julius might have learned and had the will in his pocket. Julius Judaism afresh. The union wants to waste so much time, and volunteered to of Gore's whereabouts.

"Yes! That young Moon wrote a letter to me saying that Bernard had come to the Bower, starving and in rags."

It was on the tip of Durham's tongue to say that no doubt Jerry had been to say that no doubt Jerry had the will in his pocket. Julius and say the train going down and express that young how now had to those Jews who have neglected the means hitherto available to those Jews who have neglected the means hitherto available to those Jews who have neglected the means hithert It was on the tip of Durham's tongue to say that no doubt Jerry had been placed as a spy at the Bower, but he suppressed this remark. He firmly be- to be read to Alice In it Durham told the leved that Julius was a murderer, but as whole of Beryl's scheme to get possession meeting on the belief in efficacy of praying; but none except Bill's cousin wanted yet he saw some difficulty in bringing of the property, But for obvious reasons the crime home to him. He thought it he said nothing of Tolomeo's story or taught. Many prominent Jews were preswould be best to give the man rope Beryl's real guilt. He thought, very ent, and indorsed the Jewish Religious he was, and he would get the man, and Union and its objects.

silence, and to looking inOn arriving at the Bower the two men railways, especially from abroad, are to a looking inWere met by Jerry, looking more innocertain extent justified, says the official knees. On the way back to town Eber-On arriving at the Bower the two men ranways, especially from account of the way back to town Eberwere met by Jerry, looking more innocertain extent justified, says the official hart remarked to Bill Stamper that his apology, but the lamented irregularities cousin was a trifle foolbardy, adding, but missus says will you go into the draw- in the train service of Italy are due to he is a likely fellow, and if he will move "Because I can hardly believe your ing-room," said the infant, casting down a transitory condition, to which remedown here I will make him one of my dles are being applied. The companies deputies.' who managed the rallways from 1885 to 1905 endeavored to obtain the largest pos- North, and in course of time Sheriff Ebersible saving, especially in the rolling stock, which had not been renewed for ten years. They also aimed at reducing the rallways to such a state of neglect that the government would abandon the was dying down." Arthur Redfern and Eugene Hildebrand, idea of buying them. Under these dis-"Wait one moment, Mr. Durham," said heavy to ride, have practically decided to Beryl, wagging his finger in a most irrigo to Europe in the spring in search of tating way. "Let us understand one engagements in Germany, France and engagements in Germany, France, and traffic to an enormous degree; and notengagements in Germany, France, and traine to an enormous expense innor, Tommy Burns, Willy Shaw, and curred, the gross returns of the first year "I am not bound to answer that ques- other Americans will ride. Redfern can- amounted to more than $7,000,000 in ex-"I am not bound to answer that quesion," said the lawyer, stiffly.

"Bernard answered it for you. He told brand finds it impossible to get down to brand in the stations still the stations of the previous year. This large increase in business rendered the congestion on the lines and in the stations still greater, the means of transportation be-In Europe, where the weight scale is much higher than in this country, these former star jockeys believe they can regain some of their lost laurels and incidentally fill their prokets with analysis. The means of transportation being quite inadequate. The success of the success of the Italian government ownership being about the quaint old farm kitchen, and said:

"And do you find the country very beauticident of the country very beauticident of the country very beauticident of the country very beauticident." cidentally fill their pockets with ready tore Blanchi has been put at the head of tiful, my dear?" the railways by the government. He is a man whose technical and administrative swered. work with the greatest energy, but breeder of thoroughbred race horses, has made nearly 300 nominations to the $30,before next spring at the earliest, while the complete reorganization. From the Argonaut. mont and Lombardy, having exhausted their stocks of coal, are obliged to suspend operations, their fuel being stopped in Genoa Harbor for want of freight the product of a $2,000 prize cow. "How from the Detroit Free Press. | cars to transport it. Thirty-six steamers, do you like it," he asked, when they had Acquaintance—Were you ever bunkoed? the majority loaded with English coal, finished. "Gee, it's fine!" responded one wharves of Genoa for several days.

FOREIGN NOTES OF INTEREST. GIVES UP HIS TITLE

Brother of English Earl Surrenders His Rights.

NOW A CITIZEN OF WYOMING

Oliver Henry Wallop Was Second Heir to the Earldom of Portsmouth. His Father Refused the Order of the Garter, Saying He Did Not Merit Such an Hosor.

ralized citizen of the State of Wyoming. In a letter received to-day, Mr. Wallope sion, and takes the step also in behalf of Wallop's action has greatly grieved his

The Earl of Portsmouth himself is a well-known character in and about West-A strange and fearful thing has apverse, and is sometimes given the sobrithat "he had never rendered any service said Durham, returning to his The book which Princess Henry of Bat- to the public which entitled him to such the soda water business and made a suc-

STORY OF FRANK JAMES.

An Episode in Texas in Which He

the matter. Julius himself made his ap evidence. Why should bernard leave her this extra money?"

The question was answered next day while Durham was still puzzling over the matter. Julius himself made his apthe will, Mr. Durham, and bring it down system of India demonstrates some interto the done next?"

bear being killed at the first shot.

I receil a short visit he once made to my State. It occurred back in the days when Sam Eberhart was sheriff of Grayson County and making a failured that I recall a short visit he once made to The annual report of the post-office my State. It occurred back in the days esting and striking developments. An son County, and making a finished job of in a confidential way, and after assuring himself ostentatiously that the door was closed.

"I am not your legal adviser," said Duram, quickly.

"You are Bernard's."

"Tam much obliged to you, Mr. Duram, quickly.

"I am much obliged to you, Mr. Duram, out to he helding out his head," and me in the service of the postal establish "Tam much obliged to you, Mr. Duram, office undertakes functions performed by no other post-office in the world. It sells no othe ham," said he, holding out his hand, "and when I come into possession of the eswhen I come into possession of the estate you will find me a good client."

eral have died of plague, eight deaths old acquaintance that we will call Bill Durham, for the sake of keeping up the were caused by the Kangra earthquake, You forget," said the solicitor, looking deception, had to shake hands, although while four postal servants were killed by and asked him to join the party. Bill told at him sharply. "Bernard is supposed to he loathed himself for doing so. When the door closed on the arch plotter the "I don't think that you ever believed at the door closed on the arch plotter the carried off by a tiger, and another was swallowed by a crocodile. around and was afraid he could not go on that account. 'Bring him along,' said "That has nothing to do with you."
"Oh, yes, it has. See here. Durham, wrote to Miss Malleson some time ago, taking that Laboratory that I had seen Remard to Liver. Of course, if the real Bernard glous Union a meeting was held in London Texas life, and he can see how we had not been down here." So shout might be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not been down here. So shout might be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not been down here. So shout might be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the life of the course of the Jewish ReliTexas life, and he can see how we had not be the day of the life of the li started for the cabin door. A kick opened the door, and with a catlike movem In reference to complicated conditions he sprang into the room and covered the

"In a few days Bill's cousin went back

What a Slum Girl Saw,

From the Boston Advertiser. horrors, all the beauty and poetry of a pastoral life were offered. Thus the philanthropist expected to give the youngster an aesthetic education.

charge. She is a little girl. He took her about the quaint old farm kitchen, and

The other day the man went to see his

"Oh, beautiful!" the youngster an-"And what have you seen during the week's sojourn here?

"I've seen eighty-seven turkeys killed.

A lot of poor children were at Rockefeller's stock farm near Cleveland. He